FOREIGN RIGHTS CATALOGUE SPRING 2023

Greek Publishing House Desyllas, specialising in games and books, always apace with the contemporary demands of children and parents alike, is once again solidifying its presence in the Greek market by introducing the essential category of children's books.

This new product category will embrace all stages of a child's development, from infancy to adolescence, always focusing on quality books, maintaining the company's successful track in creating educational and quality games for over 40 years.

The list of books of Desyllas Group has been attentively drafted by our new team that was created solely for this purpose and consists of experienced and successful professionals in the field of publishing. Our catalogue is comprised of a selection of books from the largest foreign publishing houses and authors with a modern point of view, theme and aesthetic, as well as collaborations with award-winning Greek writers and translators.

Since 1981, Desyllas Group has been producing and distributing games for children and adults, focusing on high quality, educational and recreational values. It is our commitment and vision that our company continues to move towards that direction. With constantly adding new products and product series, such as children's books, Desyllas Group accomplishes an enhanced presence in the Greek market.

We thank you for your support and love all these years. It is our pleasure to invite you aboard our little "boat" on this fantastic reading journey! A magical adventure, with the guaranteed quality and educational diligence of Desyllas Group.

We truly believe you will embrace this new step with us.
